

METAL STORM

Prime Existence

Prime Existence

(Verse 1)

Freddy's coming, time to die.
In your sleep, you can't hide.
Sharp claws cut through the air.
Your worst fears turn to despair.

In the dark, he stalks alone.
Inside your mind, he makes his throne.
No escape, your time is near.
In your dreams, you live in fear.

(Chorus)

Nightmares
Where everything is real

No cares
No life is here for real

(Verse 2)

Silent screams, no one near,
Freddy's grin, your fear.
Waking up is not a joke
In his grip, you will choke.

Bloody hands pull you in,
Sleep's a doom you can not win.
In nightmares, he reigns supreme,
Elm Street's curse, a deadly dream.

(Chorus)

Steelclaws
Ripping out your mind

Krüger
Is one of a kind

(Break)

Nightmares, Nightmares, Nightmares
Where everything is real

No cares, no cares, no cares
No life is here for real

Steelclaws, Steelclaws, Steelclaws
Ripping out your mind

Krüger, Krüger, Krüger
Is one of a kind

(Verse 3)

No one escapes Freddy's hand.
Sleep forever in his land.
Blades of terror slice the night.
You won't wake to morning light.

Trapped inside this endless pain.
He's the master of the slain.
In your dreams, he makes you fall.
No escape, he owns it all.
